

Hydroloop, saving water by recirculation

QUE, Mexico

The Hydro Loop is a hot water recirculation device designed to save water that is normally wasted waiting for hot water to arrive in the shower.

Instead of disposing of it, redirect the water back to the heater. With minimal investment, this device provides instant hot water at the push of a button, without wasting time. Now you can enj...

water consumption

energy efficiency

water saving

reduced waste water