

Solar-powered floating pump system

Ocuvi, Peru

In the Chullpia lagoon, in the Ocuvi district in Puno, the community implemented an irrigation system that works with solar energy to pump, from a boat, the water necessary for its productive activities. Its capacity for innovation and resilience contributes to having water in dry seasons.

En la laguna de Chullpia, en el distrito de Ocuvi, en Puno, l...

resilient agricultur

water scarcity

renewable energy

solar energy

water mobilization