

Ola Filter

-Santiago Atitlán, Guatemala

The system uses a tight loop of hollow fibre membranes with microscopic pores that block bacteria, parasites, cysts, micro plastics and sediments in order to filter drinking water. This is an excellent solution for communities with no access to safe drinking water and expensive to buy.

water filtration

community involvement

clean water