

FoliaWater

Alta Verapaz, Guatemala

a book whose pages kill microbes in water. The product originates from Dankovich's doctoral thesis, which focused on the development of paper filters with silver nanoparticles that kill bacteria, viruses and other pathogens. This filter allows thousands of families to have access to clean drinking water on a daily basis.

community empowerment

safe drinking water

clean water

community resilience